Thomas A. Clark, Chief

Ashland Police Department 'Open House'...

The Ashland community is invited to an open house to be held at the Ashland Police Department on Thursday August 30, 5pm – 8pm...

As the Department prepares for International Accreditation, we have done some sprucing up of the facility and would like to invite our citizens to come out and visit their local police department

We will have officers and staff here to meet and talk the citizens. We will also have some of our equipment on display for visitors to view

The department is located at 601 England Street

Parking is available behind the department at Pufferbelly Park...

Light refreshments provided

If you have any questions, please contact Cheryl Bookwalter at (804) 798-1227
