On Monday, June 25, 2007, at 9 am, Ashland Officers received a request from the Fredericksburg Police Department to attempt to locate four individuals at the Motel 6, located at the intersection of Cottage Green Drive and Rt. 54. The Ashland officers located all of the subjects inside of a single room at the motel and took the subjects into custody without incident. Kimberly Goodwin, 18, Iris Fuentes, 27, Jose Fuentes, 28, and Frankie Vargas, 19, all residents of the state of Florida, were arrested on felony warrants obtained by Fredericksburg Police Department for (1) conspiracy to obtain merchandise by false pretenses and (2) conspiring to commit credit card fraud. The subjects are currently incarcerated and being held without bond at Pamunkey Regional Jail. There were three children located inside of the room, all of which are being cared for by Hanover County Child Protective Services, while the parents are in custody.
