THOMAS A. CLARK, CHIEF

The Ashland Police Department is requesting the public's assistance in identifying a suspect involved in a grand larceny from a local convenience store.

On August 12, 2007, an unidentified black male entered the Kangaroo Express, in the 600 block of England Street, while the clerk was outside of the store, and stole a large amount of lottery tickets and cigarettes. The suspect left the store and fled in an unknown direction. He is only identified as a black male, with a muscular build and a shaved head, wearing a sleeveless white tee shirt and dark pants.

If anyone has information related to the suspect's identity or this case, please contact Investigator Aigner at (804) 798-1227.
