Employee of the Quarter – July 1, 2008 through September 30, 2008

The Ashland Police Department would like to announce that Officer Foster Miles has earned the Employee of the Quarter Award.

Officer Foster Miles is assigned to the evening shift patrol and has investigated several criminal activities throughout the past quarter, this has led to 19 felony and misdemeanor arrests. He has also issued 22 traffic citations, 12 trespass notices and interviewed 62 suspicious individuals.

Officer Miles' supervisors often comment on his positive and professional demeanor and his willingness to take on any assignment. One of his most recent assignments was to address issues at the skate park.

During the month of October Officer Miles successfully competed in the 2008 LawFit Challenge for Law Enforcement Officers, which was held at George Mason University.
