Employee of the Quarter – March 31, 2008 through June 30, 2008

The Ashland Police Department would like to announce that Officer Andy Kain has earned the Employee of the Quarter Award. Officer Andy Kain is assigned to the evening shift where he is an active member of the bike team, participates in the Project Lifesaver program and is a proactive traffic enforcement officer. Officer Kain was very effective in his criminal interdiction efforts throughout town during the last quarter. During this time period, he made nine arrests, to include several narcotics arrests, issued sixty-four traffic summons and logged over forty hours of bike patrol.

Officer Kain is very dedicated to the bike team and rides at every opportunity that presents itself. He led the Fourth of July Parade, conducted a bike rodeo at the Ashland Town Square Apartments, spoke to several youths at the Toddler Town Daycare and is often seen enforcing traffic violations while on the bike. Office Kain is very professional when speaking with the citizens of the community and is dedicated to his shiftmates and the agency.
