Good Morning America will be broadcasting from Ashland tomorrow morning. They are encouraging the Town to bring out as many people as possible to celebrate our community. If you, or people you know, would like to have an opportunity to be part of the crowd on camera, you will need to be on College Avenue between Calhoun Street and North Taylor Street by 6:30 AM tomorrow morning. Please enter the area via Taylor Street and walk to College Avenue. If you live in the neighborhood, please bike or walk to the event. If you are driving, please park at the Henry Clay Shopping Center parking lot on England Street, and then walk over to College Avenue via Taylor or Henry Streets. Members of the Ashland Police Department will be assisting with traffic control. There will be no street parking available in the area. College Avenue will be closed for the event. Ashland will be on the air at various times between 7:00-8:30 AM. Tomorrow will be another great day in the Center of the Universe.

Please be sure to obey all roadway signs and remain behind police barricades as the police officers will be very busy and need everyone to enjoy the day in an orderly fashion.
