The Ashland Police Department's 2010 Driving Under the Influence arrest leaders are recognized at regional ceremony.

On September 19, 2011, the Ashland Police Department's Corporal Grant Bonistalli and Corporal Daniel Gray were awarded the Mothers Against Drunk Driving, award for their outstanding achievements in Driving Under the Influence enforcement.

Corporal Grant Bonistalli has served with the Ashland Police Department since December of 2007 and Corporal Daniel Gray has served with the Department since February of 2009. They are both currently assigned to the midnight shift patrol as supervisors.

Corporals Bonistalli and Gray's dedication to DUI enforcement serves as an example of the Ashland Police Department's commitment to providing safer streets for the entire community and greater Richmond area.
