Douglas A. Goodman, Chief
Date: June 20, 2011

On June 14, 2011, Chief Douglas A. Goodman presented an Excellent Police Duty Award to Hanover Commonwealth's Attorney R.E. "Trip" Chalkley for his assistance in the arrest and prosecution of an arson suspect from the Hotel fires which occurred this past December. Trip Chalkley responded to the scene of the third fire the night the suspect was captured and assisted officers in determining charges and spent countless hours coordinating the prosecution of this case. This coordinated effort was greatly appreciated and Trip Chalkley was recognized for these dedicated efforts.

In appreciation of The Honorable R. E. "Trip" Chalkley for the excellent performance of his duties in assisting the Ashland Police Department and Hanover County Fire Marshall's Officer with the investigation and apprehension of an arson suspect.
